General Background Facts

1948: Original structure

Architects: Royer and Davis, Urbana, IL  Architecture Style: Modern Supervising Architect: C. Herrick Hammond, State Architect

1965: West addition

Architects: Berger-Kelley-Unteed, Associates, Champaign, IL

1950

- Water Resources Building
  - Home of the State Water Survey Division of the Illinois Dept of Registration and Education

Repurposed: 1986

- Computing Applications Building
  - National Center for Supercomputing Applications - one of three NCSA buildings

Repurposed: 2009

- College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
  - Temporary “surge” space - while Lincoln Hall is renovated
    - Dean’s Office of Liberal Arts & Sciences (LAS)
    - Faculty offices

Current Building Occupants:

- College of Liberal Arts & Sciences
  - Liberal Arts & Sciences Administration
  - Department of Political Science

Water Resources Building/Computing Applications Building

Location: 605 E. Springfield Champaign
Built: 1950
of Floors: 4
Gross Square Footage (GSF): 41,970
Net Square Footage (NSF): 24,541
Roof Square FT: 10,400
Window Square FT: 5,317

Light Retrofit Project
- Light Fixtures: 601
- Watt Reduction: 21,636
- Annual Cost Savings (12h/day): $9,041
- Simple Payback (years): 2.01