ANTI-EVICTION CAMPAIGNS FROM CAPE TOWN TO CHICAGO: A CONVERSATION WITH CAMPAIGN ACTIVISTS

As a grassroots coordinating body for over 15 community organizations in the Western Cape Province of South Africa, the WCAPEC has been at the forefront of challenging the neoliberal economic policies that have been imposed since the fall of apartheid. Following a brief viewing of a documentary, Ashraf Cassim (AEC Western Cape) and JR Fleming (AEC Chicago) will discuss the origins and development of the WCAPEC and the launch of the AEC in Chicago. The documentary “When the Mountain Meets its Shadow” focuses on three personal stories, including Ashraf’s. The film offers a sensitive portrait of a society in transition from racial apartheid to neoliberal capitalism.

Please RSVP to Lydia Khuri at mkhuri@illinois.edu if you wish to go to dinner with the presenters at SDPR/IKE Dining at 6pm.

Karaoke

Friday, March 4, 9:00pm, South Rec

Warm up those pipes! We’re doing karaoke!

Friday, March 4, 10:00pm, South Rec

Get ready to relive the golden age as we enjoy some 90s/2000’s cartoons and gourmet on cereal! Free to bring your own snacks!

Monster Movie Mash

Friday, March 4, 12:00am, Main Lounge

If there is beer involved just know that a name change will be in order. Look out for “Children of the Corn Flakes.” I hope you don’t plan on sleeping because this will be glorious!

Dungeons and Dragons

Saturday, March 5, 12:00 noon, Main Lounge

Let there be more adventuring! Bring your dice, bring your character sheet, and if you don’t have those things, come anyway.

Fingerpainting via Twister

Saturday, March 5, 7:00pm, South Rec

Do you like fingerpainting? Do you like the childhood tangle game known as Twister? Well, why not do both together! Join RA Sam and RA A’Keisha for an upgraded version of Twister, involving more paint, more mess and hopefully more fun. Wear clothes you don’t care about/clothes you want to paint on.

Hacker, Inventor, and "Maker Hero" Mitch Altman will be in-Residence at Unit One/Allen Hall 2/29-3/14

Mitch Altman is a San Francisco-based hacker and inventor, best known for inventing the TV-B-Gone remote control, a keychain that emits radio waves to turn off TVs in public places. Make Magazine has referred to Altman as "the Johnny Appleseed of hackspaces", and he was awarded the first "Maker Hero" award, named in his honor.
