Orientation Committee

Thursday, March 17th, 8pm, South Rec Room
Did you enjoy Allen Hall Orientation last semester? Want to get involved in program planning within the hall? Join us in planning this Allen Hall tradition for Fall 2016!

International Snackie Night

Thursday, March 17th, 7pm, Room 330
Join RA Sam for yet another adventure of the international snacking variety. This week we'll be snacking on a bunch of things from the awesome international store World Harvest. Stop by Room 330 to see what things I’ve found! As per usual, BYOM. Because mugs are life.

Fancy Friday

Friday, March 18th, All day, Whatever you are Celebrate the end of the week/onset of the weekend with your fanciest apparel (AKA honestly just whatever makes you feel like a million bucks). Break out the dress you like that you haven't found a reason to wear, don your monacle/sweatpants power combo and rule the streets with your confidence and sass.

Eriel Deranger: 6th Annual Campus Ecofeminism Summit

Tuesday, March 15, 7:30pm, Main Lounge
Eriel Tchekwie Deranger is a Denè Indigenous rights advocate, activist and member of the Athabascan Chipewyan First Nation (ACFN) of Northern Alberta, Canada. Eriel is currently employed as the Tar Sands Campaign and Communication Coordinator for ACFN. In the past she has worked with Rainforest Action Network (RAN), Taking It Global, the United Nations Indigenous Youth Caucus, and various youth projects. She works to raise awareness about the negative impacts on climate, human life, and Indigenous rights of the Alberta Tar Sands

Join us for the 6th Annual Campus Ecofeminism Summit Keynote Lecture! The summit is an annual week-long series of events devoted to connecting social justice, environmental justice, and feminism.

Who do you want to bring to Allen next year?

Do you know of any fascinating artists, activists, scholars, performers, writers, educators, inventors, journalists, scientists, musicians, or uncategorizable people? Unit One is looking for applicants for the Guest-in-Residence program for the 2016-17 academic year.

Send me your suggestions of who you’d like to learn from next year! If you don’t have a particular person in mind, you can send suggestions for a type of person you’d like to see, based on field of interest, profession, or other criteria.

Send suggestions to lhaber@illinois.edu

Supper Club!

Lincoln-A llen Dining is starting a new supper club in the Field Of Greens area. There will be a “soft” opening on April 4th. It is going to be called Revolve because the menu will be very seasonal and revolving. They are hoping to have weekly entertainment and are looking for students from Allen Hall who might be interested in performing. Contact Brenda Welch at bwelch@illinois.edu if you are interested.

Illinois Primary Voting Day!

Tuesday, March 15, 6am-7pm, LAR Basement
The time has come to practice your civil duty and vote for who you want to be the next President of our beautiful country. Allen Residents who registered to vote on campus have their polling place in the LAR Basement! Please go out and vote! Your voice matters!

Mitch Altman

is a San Francisco-based hacker and inventor, best known for inventing the TV-B-Gone remote control, a keychain that turns off TVs in public places. He co-founded 3ware, a Silicon Valley RAID controller company; did pioneering work in Virtual Reality at VPL Research; and created the Brain Machine, one of M-Kids Magazine’s most popular DIY projects.

Sunday, March 13
1pm-4pm - Making way cool sounds & music: Basics of Digital Signal Processing workshop (south rec) (Open to anyone) Digital Signal Processing is really cool. And it's not all that hard to learn to play with. Let's come together to learn the basics, and understand how to make way cool noise, sound, and music with microcontrollers.

Monday, March 14
7pm-10pm - Make your own TV-B-Gone! (south rec) (Allen residents only) Ever been somewhere in public with a distracting TV on yammering away? Ever thought about turning TVs off in public places? Now you can! With the TV-B-Gone you can turn off TVs up to 50 meters away! In this workshop we'll be making our own TV-B-Gone and, if you like, attaching it to an article of clothing that you can wear anywhere, so no one will ever know it's you making rooms into more peaceful places for everyone. OPTIONAL: Bring a hat, hoodie, shirt, cigarette case, box, old large cell phone, or whatever else you would like to use to hold the TV-B-Gone that you will make.
